

Agricon Global Corporation
25 E. 200 South
Lehi, Utah 84043

For Immediate Release, July 10, 2013

Agricon Global Corporation Announces the Addition of a Board Member and the Addition of an Advisory Board Member

Lehi, Utah, July 10, 2013—Agricon Global Corporation (Agricon) (OTC BB: AGRC), announced today the election of Peter Opata as a new director. Mr. Opata joins James U. Jensen, Rene Mikkelsen, Soren Jonassen, and Robert Bench on the board, bringing the total number of directors to five. Agricon also announced that Mr. Allan Kronborg, will serve on Agricon's Advisory Board and also as a business consultant to the Company.

Mr. Opata, age 45, graduated from the University of Ghana, Legon in 1996. He joined Lowe and Partners, a global network of agencies that build great brands, as an Advertising and Marketing Executive in March 1997. He was responsible for global companies, including BMW, Barclays Bank, Unilever and Scancom, now MTN. In September 1999, Mr. Opata moved to Denmark where he attended Aalborg University, and acquired a Masters Degree in Development Studies and International Relations. With a great desire to use the new knowledge acquired, he joined Ghana Foreign Service in October 2002.

Mr Opata's years in the Ghana Foreign Service has helped him acquire valuable diplomatic experience. He was a member of Ghana's delegation to the COP 15 Climate summit in Copenhagen in 2009. He was also a member of Ghana's delegation to the International Working Group (IWG) on the Ivory Coast Peace Process in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, 2006. Peter Opata has lived in most of the ten regions of Ghana; he speaks English, French and four Ghanaian languages.

Mr. James U Jensen, Chairman said "We are pleased to have Mr. Opata join our board. His broad international experience and specifically his contacts and associations in Ghana, will benefit our company in many ways. His experience with international politics will also be a benefit as Agricon seeks to initiate and expands its global operations."

Mr. Kronborg, age 51, was educated in mechanical and energy engineering. From 1986 through 1997 he served in various senior management positions in companies with international operations, and in 1997 formed his own healthcare company. He is an active entrepreneur with interests and experience in real estate and starting companies and running their operations in China, Czech Republic, Lithuania, Sweden, Norway, and Denmark. He has recently taken an interest in the business and growth opportunities in Ghana.

Mr. Robert Bench, President and Director said "We are pleased to have Mr. Kronborg join the Company; we welcome his wealth of international business operations and growth to Agricon's operations and expansion efforts in Ghana. Allan will also support the Company in a business consulting role, as we seek to expand our operations in Ghana. Allan is very excited about the economic environment in Ghana and all of West Africa, he will assist us in finding existing companies for potential acquisition or joint venture efforts in Ghana.